

How do we help build a culture of life in America?

You're invited to join Marisa Beffel, Ph.D., to explore:
what kind of technology, medicine, and democracy
would promote and protect the dignity, and rights, of everyone?

When: June 22nd (Tuesday), 2010 @ 7 pm
Where: St. John the Evangelist – Church Hall [parking lots to the north & south]
8500 W. Cold Spring Rd., Greenfield
Program: Talk (geared to adults): 7 – 7:45 pm
Free-will offering
Break, with refreshments
Q & A, discussion
RSVP: Kathy Knaack @ (414) 329-0991
(count is for refreshments)

Dr. Marisa Beffel attained her degrees in Medical Bioethics, after an extensive career in nursing.
She is a very engaging speaker, who will touch your mind and heart. She and her husband John Beffel, Ph.D., have nine children.

If you can make it to only one talk this year, this is the one!

Sponsored by the Respect Life Committee of St. John the Evangelist Church
Cluster Parishes member with St. Alphonsus, St. Martin of Tours, and St. Mary (Hales Corners)